Faculty of Graduate Studies, Mahidol University

Subject: Methods for Submission of TOEFL iBT or IELTS Score Report

Year 2020

It is appropriate to consider to revise the method for submission of the English proficiency test scores for TOEFL-iBT or IELTS of graduate students, as the examination center has added channels for institutions to verify a candidate's score directly at the examination center.

The Faculty of Graduate studies, Mahidol University, therefore, issues an announcement to add operation channels for the graduate students to be able to submit their scanned pdf file of TOEFL-iBT or IELTS score to the Language Center of the Faculty of Graduate Studies through the following channels on our webpage:

1. English scores submission system of the Language Center.
2. e-Document system for graduate students.

In this regard, only the English proficiency examination results which are not exceeding 2 years counted from the examination date shall be certified.

Announced on 7 October, 2020
