Subject: Guidelines for Instruction Management, Study Length Extension, Maintaining Student Status, Comprehensive Examination, Qualifying Examination, Thematic Paper/ Thesis/ Dissertation Proposal Examination, and Thematic Paper/ Thesis/ Dissertation Examination amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic in the Second Semester/ Academic Year 2021

Due to the pandemic of the COVID-19 pandemic in Thailand and among neighboring countries, the Faculty of Graduate Studies hereby issues the announcement regarding “Guidelines for Instruction Management, Study Length Extension, Maintaining Student Status, Comprehensive Examination, Qualifying Examination, Thematic Paper/ Thesis/ Dissertation Proposal Examination, and Thematic Paper/ Thesis/ Dissertation Examination amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic in the Second Semester/ Academic Year 2021” which holds details as the following.

Instruction Management

The instruction in the graduate level shall be held according to the following settings:

1. The virtual – online – classroom where instructors are able to teach and students are able to study from any suitable venues.
2. The onsite classroom where instructors teach and students attend in a classroom on one of the campuses. In this setting, the relevant University Announcement must be followed strictly and the COVID-19 pandemic protective measures shall be strictly followed.
3. The blended classroom where instruction can be held based on both onsite and online settings (the onsite classroom setting must follow the relevant University Announcement strictly).

4. The fieldtrips held in Thailand or abroad shall be organized in the following conditions.

4.1 Should the fieldtrip be part of a required course, the program and course coordinator shall offer substitute studies to compensate the activity. The substitute studies must offer learning outcomes of at least 80% of those obtainable from the fieldtrip. The Program Director shall request the permission from the Faculty of Graduate Studies prior to doing so.

4.2 Should the fieldtrip not be partial fulfillment of any courses under the program, the program shall offer substitute studies to compensate the activity. The substitute studies must offer learning outcomes of at least 80% of those obtainable from the fieldtrip. The Program Director shall request the permission from the Faculty of Graduate Studies prior to doing so.

The instruction according to all clauses above shall be based on the learning outcomes of all students enrolling in any courses. This must be executed to meet at least 80% of learning outcomes of the courses and must follow the memorandum of Office of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation, Division of Quality Enhancement on Higher Education Management, issued to Presidents of the Public Universities and Autonomous Universities, as indexed อว.0224.2/๖6111, on the 4th date of June of year B.E.2564, regarding the Guidelines for instruction management of the program containing co-operative education, internship and fieldtrip amidst the COVID-19 pandemic.

Study Length Extension and Maintaining Student Status

The consideration upon the study length extension due to the COVID-19 pandemic situation shall be based on the memorandum of Office of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation, Division of Quality Enhancement on Higher Education Management, issued to Presidents of the Public Universities and Autonomous Universities, as indexed อว.0224.2/๖6030, on the 4th date of July of year B.E.2564, regarding the Extended Deadlines for Graduation amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic.
