Faculty of Graduate Studies, Mahidol University

Subject: Announcement of Publishing Review Articles Awards for Graduate Students for the Fiscal Year 2027

The Faculty of Graduate Studies has a policy to support the publication of review articles in the form of Narrative review, Systematic review, Systematic review and Meta-analysis by graduate students of Mahidol University. This is aimed at training students to write internationally recognized academic articles, increasing the citation rate for Mahidol University and enhancing students' competency to graduate more quickly. Therefore, the Faculty of Graduate Studies intends to offer awards to graduate students for publishing review articles for the fiscal year 2027.

1. Objectives

- 1.1 To promote the publication of review articles in the form of Narrative review, Systematic review, and Systematic review and Meta-analysis by graduate students
- 1.2 To increase the number of published works and citations for Mahidol University
- 1.3 To encourage students to complete their studies more quickly

2. Eligibility for Submitting a Request for the Award for Publishing Review Articles by Graduate Students

- 2.1 The applicant must be a graduate student at Mahidol University.
- 2.2 The content of the work must be related to the student's thesis, with the student's name listed first and the thesis advisor as the corresponding author.
- 2.3 The work submitted for the award must be in the form of a Narrative review, Systematic review, or Systematic review and Meta-analysis.
- 2.4 The applicant must have obtained approval from the thesis advisor (corresponding author) as specified in the form.
- 2.5 The work must have been published in a journal and must be searchable in that journal.
- 2.6 The article must specify the student's affiliation to Mahidol University. If the article is listed in the Scopus database, it must include the keyword "Mahidol University" for searchability.
- 2.7 The work submitted for the award must be published in a journal indexed in the Scimago Journal & Country Rank (SJR) database and must be in an international journal listed in Quartile 1 or 2 of the global database.
